1.1 B TASK SHEET – THE PROBLEM TABLE

■ Put the listed problems in the table below. You may add your own ideas

1 - homework, 2 - no time, 3 - unfriendly teachers, 4 - busy parents, 5 - too much to do, 6 - nothing to do, 7 - broken computer, 8 - no money, 9 - stupid rules, 10 - heavy traffic, 11 - busy friends, 12 - difficult tests

1.2 A/a TASK SHEET – GAP FILL

- Fill in the gaps with the synonym or similar meaning of the italicised words. Put the numbers in the brackets.

Rumour has it that (___) it's easy to cheat on language exams. But I can tell you, crime doesn't pay (___). For example, I'd never give a hand to (___) anyone who wanted to cheat on exam. I'd turn my head away, just to be on the safe side (___) and then I wouldn't be in trouble. It goes without saying (___) that everyone should behave like this. Some people call me names (___), for example "stupid" or "eager-beaver", but I don't mind.

- 1 It's not worth it, it's not a nice thing to do bad things
- 2 help
- 3 tell everyone what they think I am
- 4 I don't think I have to say
- 5 just to make sure everything's all right
- 6 people say that

1.2 A/b TASK SHEET – GAP FILL

- Fill in the gaps with the synonym or similar meaning of the italicised words. Put the numbers in the brackets.

I'm upset. To put it mildly (___), I'm a little bit angry. Until now I wanted to become a computer programmer. I told my friend that I'd fix his laptop and I didn't want to go back on my word (___), so I went over to see him. I didn't want to take the easy way out (___) and not go, so I told my parents to keep their fingers crossed (___) while I'm over. We switched on the laptop and it displayed texts and numbers that I had never seen before but I didn't tell him I think his computer simply bit the dust (___). Somehow he still knew he barked up the wrong tree (___). He told me I'd better find another hobby...

- 1 didn't ask the correct person for the job
- 2 broke, died or couldn't work anymore
- 3 break one's promise
- 4 to support and think about me
- 5 Not to say it too strongly
- 6 to find excuses

1.2 B/a TASK SHEET – GAP FILL

- Fill in the gaps with the synonym or similar meaning of the italicised words. Put the numbers in the brackets.

People say that (___) sometimes it's easy to cheat on language exams. But I can tell you it's not nice to do illegal things (___). For example, I'd never help (___) anyone who wanted to cheat on exam. I'd turn my head away, just to make sure I'm safe (___) and then I wouldn't be in trouble. I don't think I have to say (___) that everyone should behave like this. Some people call me all kinds of things (___), for example "stupid" or "eager-beaver" but I don't mind.

4.1 TASK SHEET – FILL IN THE TABLE

- Arrange the following words in the table.

tiring, relax, excited, hardly wait, arrange, pleasant, monthly pass, underage, keen on, deserve, reward, go unnoticed, require, law

ADJECTIVES	VERBS	NOUNS

4.4 A ROLE CARDS

Student's Role Card

08.00

It's Friday morning and you've had a very tiring week at school. You'd like to go somewhere to relax in the evening. How about a disco? As you don't want to go alone, ask your friend to go with you.

10.25

This morning you're too excited somehow. It may be because you can hardly wait to go to dance tonight, or because you're too tired after a long week at school. All in all you can't pay attention on the English lesson and keep making stupid mistakes.

14.00

You arrive home from school and you can hardly wait to ask your father/mother to let you go out tonight. Tell your parent that you've arranged to go to a disco with your friend and that you need some pocket money.

15.30

After a long and not too pleasant discussion your parents have finally agreed that you can go to the disco tonight but you must call your grandparents to tell them you won't go to see them. Say sorry and explain the situation.

18.10

You leave home and take a bus to meet your friend on the way to the disco. You're on the bus when the ticket controller arrives. You look for your monthly pass but it's not on you. You left it in your school bag with your ID. Explain the situation.

20.25.

Finally, you arrive at Flashy Hell Disco and want to enter. The security guard says you mustn't go in unless you show some ID. He thinks you're underage.

4.4 B ROLE CARDS

08.00 – Student 2

It's Friday morning and you've had a very tiring week at school. You're really tired and you want to spend this evening having fun. Suggest to your friend going to a cinema. You're not so keen on discos but if there's nothing else to do, you don't mind them.

10.25 – Teacher of English

One of your best students behaves very strangely today. Usually he/she is a brilliant student but this morning he/she makes one mistake after another and can't concentrate. Tell him/her you want to speak to his/her parents and also ask his/her to stay in school after lessons because you want to talk to them.

14.00 – Parent

Your son/daughter has just arrived home from school, very tired. You promised your parents (ie. his/her grandparenst) that you and your family would visit them tonight as you haven't seen them for a month now. You know your child did well in school the last few days and you think she/he deserves some reward, but you also got a phone call from his/her English teacher about today's lesson.

15.30 - Grandparent

It's been a month now that you haven't seen your grandchild and you're looking forward to this evening when your family visits you. You prepared lots of food and some surprises as well. You get a phone call from them.

18.10 – Ticket controller

It's Friday evening and you know that most young people are going somewhere to have fun. You also know that they don't really like to buy tickets because they think there are too many people travelling anyway and they can go unnoticed. Ask for tickets and passes.

20.25 – Security guard

You're standing at the entrance of Flashy Hell Disco. The law requires that you check all entering people's ID if you think they're underage. Basically you're helpful with teenagers, but you must keep to rules and regulations.
